

Chinmaya Arts & Science College for Women, Govindagiri, Chala Kannur

ARGUE PERSUADE WIN!

K K DEVAPRIYA

Debate, Discuss, Discover: Students Engage in Thought-Provoking Debate Competition.

Chala: Chinmaya Arts and Science College Emerges Victorious in Debate Competition. A panel of expert judges evaluated the performances, and Sumayya's exceptional oratory skills earned her the first prize and Sheethal secured a third-place prize.

The LAPPT organization hosted a debate competition on January 8, 2025, at University Thavakara. Sumayya N.R, 2nd-year BA student, and Sheethal PM, 2nd year MA student, a team represented Chinmaya Arts and Science College, passionately arguing on the topic "Climate change is a threat to human health."

The competition saw participation from several colleges, with each team representing their respective university. Sumayya N R, the current Chairperson of Chinarts, has already made a name for herself in the collegiate and intercollegiate debate and quiz circuits, now gearing up for the national level debate competition.

Chinarts Hosts Annual Talent Hunt

N MANASA PRAMOD

Chala: The campus of Chinmaya Arts and Science College for Women was abuzz with creativity and enthusiasm as it hosted its annual Talent Hunt on December 12-13. This two-day event, focused on off-stage competitions, provided students with a platform to showcase their artistic and literary skills across various categories.

The Talent Hunt comprised diverse activities, including story writing, poetry writing, essay writing, painting, pencil drawing, mehndi design, film review writing, and computer designing. The results and prize distribution for winners will be announced during the upcoming College Day celebrations. The event was a grand success, leaving everyone inspired and eagerly anticipating the results.

In the art categories, the painting and pencil drawing competitions witnessed remarkable participation, with students creating visually stunning and thought-provoking pieces. The story writing competition yielded captivating narratives, while the poetry writing event showcased profound emotions and creativity.

The art categories, the painting and pencil drawing competitions witnessed remarkable participation, with students creating visually stunning and thought-provoking pieces. The story writing competition yielded captivating narratives, while the poetry writing event showcased profound emotions and creativity.

The results and prize distribution for winners will be announced during the upcoming College Day celebrations. The event was a grand success, leaving everyone inspired and eagerly anticipating the results.

Embracing a Brighter Resolution

As we step into a new year, we are reminded of the significance of New Year's resolutions in our lives. This time-honored tradition offers us a unique opportunity to reflect on past mistakes, set new goals, and strive for personal growth.

The dawn of a new year is a proud moment to share knowledge, experiences, and wisdom with others. It is a chance to learn from past errors, reassess our priorities, and make a conscious effort to improve our lives.

Setting New Year's resolutions is a powerful way to take control of our lives, achieve our aspirations, and cultivate a sense of purpose. By making promises to ourselves, our loved ones, and our community, we can foster personal growth, self-awareness, and self-improvement.

Moreover, New Year's resolutions offer a chance to develop new skills, expand our knowledge, and explore new horizons. By embracing this tradition, we can unlock our full potential, overcome challenges, and create a brighter future for ourselves and those around us.

As we embark on this journey of self-discovery and growth, let us remember that the true essence of New Year's resolutions lies not in making promises, but in keeping them. Let us strive to make this year a transformative one, filled with hope, optimism, and a renewed commitment to excellence.

Chinarts New Year: A Vibrant Affair

K V AFRA

Chala: Chinmaya Arts and Science College celebrated the New Year in style on January 7. The event featured a cake-marking the beginning of a fresh year, new opportunities, students and faculty members, and unforgettable memories. They shared their love and

This spectacular event care by sharing sweets. showcased the college's commitment to fostering a vibrant campus culture, competition were also held, highlighting the creativity, with Ameesha, a first-year enthusiasm, and camaraderie BCA student, being crowned among students, faculty, and the winner. Her stunning staff. performance as Devasena

The excitement for the celebration began weeks in advance, with students eagerly anticipating the event. As we embark on this fresh journey, we carry with us the students decorated the college, enthusiasm, optimism, and joy planned games and activities, of this special celebration, and invited renowned inspiring us to achieve greatness in the year ahead.

United We Bat, United We Bowl

K AYSHA THAMANNA

Spirit Remains High: Chinarts Takes Part in Thrilling Intercollegiate Cricket Tournament

Thaliparamba: The Kannur University Inter-Collegiate Women's Cricket tournament, hosted by Sir Syed College, concluded on Monday, with teams from various colleges participating in the event. The event, which spanned several weeks, witnessed intense competition among the participating teams, with players displaying exceptional talent and sportsmanship.

The Chinarts team, comprising Ramla Ghashia, Sreya M, Poorna Sreenivasan, Malavika Sooraj, Nandana Valsan, Savitha, Rishika Shyju, Avani Chandra, Ashitha, Soorya Sree AK, Surya D, Sneha Ramachandran, Liyana, Devika, and Vaishnavi, showcased their skills in the tournament. According to the organizers, the tournament aimed to promote physical and mental well-being among students, while fostering teamwork and camaraderie. The organizers expressed their gratitude to all participants and stakeholders, emphasizing the importance of sports in promoting holistic development among students.

Cricketing Sensation: Sreya M Makes Her Mark

We're thrilled to announce that Sreya M, a talented first-year BBA student, has been selected to represent Kannur University's women's cricket team!

This outstanding achievement is a testament to Sreya's hard work, dedication, and natural talent. It's also a proud moment for Chinmaya Arts and Science College for Women, showcasing the high level of cricketing excellence within our institution.

Talent Meets Triumph: Sreya M Makes Her Mark in University Cricket!

Paithalmala Expedition:

A Day of Adventure

C K SREENANDA

Kannur: -On January 12, 99 students from Chinmaya Arts and Science College for Women embarked on an exciting trip to Paithalmala, a scenic hill station in Kannur, Kerala. Organized by Chinmaya Yuva Kendra, the trip aimed to provide students with hands-on experience in travel, photography, and videography.

Accompanied by two faculty members, the group set off from the college campus at 7:30 am. After a scenic five-hour journey, they arrived at Paithalmala, where breathtaking views of the Western Ghats awaited them.

During the one-day trip, students engaged in various activities. They trekked to the top of Paithalmala, exploring lush forests and scenic valleys. Students captured stunning photographs of the landscape, wildlife, and local culture.

CHINARTS HOSTS WORKSHOP ON FILM MAKING

R VAISHNAVI

From script to screen: Discovering the nuances of filmmaking at Chinmaya Arts and Science College for Women.

Chala: The BA English Association at Chinmaya Arts and Science College inaugurated its annual program on January 21, 2025. Following the inauguration, a workshop titled "Film: From Script to Screen, The Art and Craft of Film Making" was conducted by Shanu Salman C S, Media Head at Alpha Naturals, Mangalore.

Shanu Salman, a seasoned filmmaker and former assistant professor at Don Bosco Arts and Science College, Angadikadavu, shared his expertise on the craft of film making.

As a director and editor of short films, Shanu Salman provided valuable insights into the history of cinema, camera movements, and camera angles.

The workshop, which began at 11 am, was an engaging and informative session that captivated the audience.

Students found the session particularly interesting, as it delved into the nuances of film making and the art of storytelling on screen.

DHANUMASA THIRUVATHIRA

K DIYA REJITH

Kannur: Chinmaya Mission, Kannur, celebrated the importance of this traditional celebration, with students, teachers Lyra mam and Anitha mam, and devotion on January 13.

The program, held at Chinmaya Balabhavan, began at 5:30 pm and featured a captivating performance by PG and UG students of Chinmaya Arts and Science College. The performers displayed remarkable hard work and determination, inspiring the audience with their energy and passion.

Seven students from Chinarts participated in the program, which showcased the spiritual and cultural significance of Thiruvathira. The celebration was a testament to the power of dance as a celebration of life.

Rhythmic steps and vibrant colours: Thiruvathira Kali team