

Chinmaya Arts & Science College for Women, Govindagiri, Chala Kannur

THE NEXT CHAPTER VOLUME TWO OF CAMPUS SIGN

C K SHIYONA

Back to Basics: Campussign team back to work.

Chala: Chinmaya Arts and Science College for Women has marked a significant milestone in its publication journey with the launch of the second volume of its college newspaper, "Campus Sign".

The new issue features a range of articles, including campus news, student achievements, and trending topics. The newspaper's design and layout have been enhanced, making it more visually appealing and engaging for readers. Led by a team of students, the editorial board works together to plan and publish each issue.

By doing so, the newspaper fosters a sense of community on campus, keeping students informed about important events and issues.

COMING SOON

Mark your calendars because Chinarts students are gearing up to host an unforgettable Freshers' Day celebration on August 14.

Spreading Awareness

Building a Healthier Tomorrow

K DIYA REJITH

Empowering the community: Chinartz NSS students

Kannur: Chinarts NSS students, in collaboration with the Yuvajagan program, organized a dynamic AIDS awareness event at Kannur on July-29.

The program, held at 2 PM, aimed to educate the public about HIV/AIDS prevention and promote healthy lifestyles.

The event kicked off with a vibrant flash mob performance by 10 NSS students, effectively drawing the attention of the crowd. 10 volunteers held informative placards highlighting crucial facts about AIDS and preventive measures.

Adv. Indira P, President of the Kannur Corporation Standing Committee, inaugurated the event. Through the Yuvajagan initiative, the event underscored the importance of youth-led awareness programs in promoting public health and well-being.

Campus Friendship A Lifelong Bond

Campus life is a transformative period that shapes not only our academic pursuits but also our personal growth. One of the most cherished aspects of this journey is the friendships forged within the campus walls. These relationships, born out of shared experiences, mutual support, and collective exploration, often blossom into lifelong bonds.

Campus friendships are built on the foundation of shared experiences. The memories created during this period become an integral part of one's life story, often cherished for years to come.

The campus environment provides a unique opportunity for students to support and encourage each other. Friends become a source of comfort and strength, helping each other navigate the challenges of academic and personal life.

This mutual support system builds trust, a crucial element in any friendship. As students learn to rely on each other, they develop a sense of security and confidence that extends beyond the campus.

ARADHANA DAY

Tribute to a spiritual giant: Swami Chinmayananda's Aradhana Day observed with devotion and reverence.

Chala: The students and faculty members of Chinmaya Arts and Science College for Women came together to observe Swami Chinmayananda's Aradhana Day with great devotion and enthusiasm.

The event featured special pujas, bhajans, and spiritual discourses, paying tribute to the revered founder of Chinmaya Mission, who attained Mahasamadhi on August 3, 1993.

CHINMAYA ARTS & SCIENCE COLLEGE FOR WOMEN

COMING SOON

₹1200/-

Time: 4 PM - 5 PM
Location: Swimming Pool (near Ladies Hostel)

✔ First 10 consecutive working days : Paid Training (₹1200)

✔ After that - 1 session per week

🔴 Bring Your Gear: Goggles, Swim Cap and Swimsuit

Whether you're aiming for competition glory or just want to glide through the water with style - this is your chance!

SWIMMING TRAINING

Ad Courtesy: KV AFRA

Friendship Day Program Brings Students Together

CK SHIYONA

Colours of Friendship: Chinarts Friendship day wall

Chala: Chinmaya Arts and Science College for Women recently celebrated Friendship Day with a special program, bringing students together to bond and create lasting memories.

Students participated in fun activities, such as games, quizzes, and group challenges, that promoted teamwork and camaraderie.

They exchanged friendship bands, symbolizing their bond and commitment to one another.

Students shared heartfelt messages and appreciation for their friends, highlighting the importance of friendships in their lives.

The Friendship Day program was a resounding success, bringing students together and fostering a sense of community on campus.

The event underscored the importance of friendships and provided a platform for students to connect and bond with one another.

Campus Goes Sweet Chocolate Day Celebration

KV AFRA

Sweet Surrender: Judges evaluate the handmade chocolate treats crafted by students

Chala: Chinarts hosted a vibrant Chocolate Day program, bringing together students and faculty for a sweet celebration.

The event was a delightful way to mark the occasion, fostering a sense of community and joy on campus.

The program featured an array of chocolate-themed activities, including quizzes and games. Students enthusiastically participated in the events, showcasing their creativity and love for chocolate. The Chocolate Day celebration served as an excellent opportunity for students to bond over shared interests and create lasting memories.

The program added a touch of sweetness to campus life, highlighting the importance of extracurricular activities in enhancing the overall college experience.

The event saw active participation from students, who enjoyed the chocolate-themed activities and had a great time interacting with their peers. The celebration was a resounding success, thanks to the efforts of the college administration and student organizers.

Star of the Week

Characters Come Alive Reading Week Stars

R VAISHNAVI

Together they Shine: Hiba and Haifa as Majid and Suhara

In a standout performance at the fictional character showcase, Haifa and Hiba of Second Year Biotech stole the spotlight with their captivating portrayal of Majid and Suhara.

With remarkable depth and imagination, the duo brought these characters to life on stage, leaving the audience in awe.

Their performance showcasing Haifa and Hiba's talent for embodying their characters with passion and nuance.

The chemistry between the two was palpable as they played out the dynamics of Majid and Suhara, earning them special recognition for their impressive act.

Highlight of the week

A Perfect Pair: Saramma (Miss Shanu Karun) and Keshavan Nair (Miss Praseetha) on stage

In a delightful twist during Reading Week, faculty members traded their usual roles for the spotlight, dazzling everyone with their charismatic performances.

Praseetha from the Malayalam Department breathed life into the iconic character Kesavan Nair, weaving a tapestry of charm and nostalgia. Meanwhile, Shanu from the English Department brought Saramma to life on stage with a vivacity that captivated the audience. Their lively and engaging performances injected a unique zest into the event, underscoring the inclusive and spirited essence of Reading Week.

As faculty members mingled with students in this creative extravaganza, the boundaries between teachers and learners blurred, giving way to shared laughter, joy, and a celebration of collective creativity

Read, Explore, Discover Chinarts Reading Week Delights

R VAISHNAVI

The PG Department of English at Chinmaya Arts and Science College, Chala hosted a vibrant and engaging Reading Week from June 23 to June 27, 2025, under the theme "Explore the Enchanting Feel of Reading - The Adventure Starts Here!"

The week-long celebration aimed to rekindle the love for reading among students while fostering creativity, imagination, and intellectual curiosity.

A variety of literary events were organized to provide a platform for students to showcase their talents and deepen their appreciation for literature.

The Book Swap, Meet the Author and many more engaging activities, the event created an immersive literary experience, ending on a high note with students expressing their enthusiasm and appreciation.